

Success

We feel successful when we take care and try and improve.

Doing our best and being proud of what we are learning helps us to feel successful.

A bit of celebration, being kind and a prize, a trophy or a medal helps us know we have succeeded!

Being successful opens doors in your life.

Responsibility

We are responsible by being determined and trusted to do things for ourselves.

We take care of each other and all of our things.

We are responsible for our own actions at school and at home.

Being responsible means being reliable.

Being responsible means making the most of the world around us.

Enthusiasm

We are enthusiastic because we are excited about learning.

We are eager and ready for whatever comes our way.

We know that doing your best helps you feel enthusiastic even when things are hard to achieve.

Being enthusiastic helps you feel good about life.

Encouraging

We work together to encourage everyone to think

'I can do it!'

We help people believe in themselves.

In our school and at home we are kind and we notice when someone is doing their best.

To encourage someone in life is to never give up on them.

Challenging

We challenge ourselves by trying to beat our goals and by always doing our best.

We look back and check to improve and extend our own learning.

We are good models for one another and our friends can look to us for help.

Being challenged means we persevere. We are resilient.
We are brave.

Fairness

We are fair because we know how important everyone is.

We treat people fairly.

We listen and help them when they are stuck or need something.

We let everyone be themselves but work hard to learn happily together.

Being fair in life means sharing, letting others have a turn and compromising; knowing that others will do the same for you.

Questioning

We ask questions to find out information.

We are curious and we know it is OK to ask again if we are not sure.

We can hear and use question words and we listen to answers.

Questioning helps us hear and understand each other's opinions.

Using questions in life will help us think and make the right decisions.

Imagination

We are imaginative because we see new possibilities in all of our learning.

Our imaginative thinking opens worlds and sparks journeys or adds detail for us.

We use our imagination to help us make the most of every experience in school and beyond.

Imagination reveals everything that we could be.
