

This week, we are going to think about one more. We did this at school. Can you remember?

What numbers can you see on around the edge of the paper?

Watch

<https://www.thenational.academy/reception/maths/finding-one->

If you haven't got number cards, you could make your own on the back of a cereal box.